National Stand	dards for Foreign Language Learning (NSFLL)	Alaska World Language Standards (AKWL)
Standard 1 Communication	1.1 Students engage in conversations, provide and obtain information, express feelings and emotions, and exchange opinions.
Communicate in Languages other than English	1.2 Student understand and interpret written and spoken language on a variety of topics.	Standard A A student should be able to communicate in two or more languages, one of which is English. Standard B A student should be able to expand the student's knowledge of peoples and cultures through language study. Standard C A student should possess the language skills and cultural knowledge necessary to participate successfully in multilingual communities and the international marketplace.
	1.3 Student present information, concepts, and ideas to an audience of listeners or readers on a variety of topics.
Standard 2 Cultures	2.1 Students demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the practices and perspectives of the culture studied.
Gain knowledge and understanding of other cultures	2.2 Students demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between the products and perspectives of the culture studied.
Standard 3	3.1 Students reinforce and further their knowledge of other disciplines through the foreign language.
Connections Connect with other disciplines to acquire information	3.2 Students acquire information and recognize the distinctive viewpoints that are only available through the foreign language and its cultures.
Standard 4 Comparisons	4.1 Students demonstrate understanding of the nature of language through comparisons of the language studied and their own.
Develop insight into the nature of language and culture	4.2 Students demonstrate understanding of the concept of culture through comparisons of the cultures studies and their own.
Standard 5 Communities	5.1 Students will use the language both within and beyond the school setting.
Participate in multilingual communities at home and around the world.	5.2 Students will use the language for personal enjoyment and enrichment.	