

Kindergarten Developmental Profile is a state-mandated assessment that is administered to kindergarten students or first grade students entering the public schools for the first time. The Developmental Profile asks the teachers of these students to record the developmental readiness of students entering kindergarten (or first grade) in four areas using eleven indicators.