

National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP): This assessment is given bi-annually to a sample group of students in 4th and 8th grade from pre-selected schools to test in reading and mathematics. The schools and students have not yet been selected. Contractors handle the administration of NAEP, however, they will work with districts to identify students, testing locations within schools, and other logistical issues.