

The Dr. Paul Isaak Memorial Scholarship Application

Established in honor of a life dedicated to the health and well-being of the people of the Kenai Peninsula.

DEADLINE: February 14, 2020

Purpose:

The Dr. Paul Isaak Memorial Scholarship is available to high school graduates of the Kenai Peninsula who plan to enter the field of health care. This includes those who have an interest in complementary or alternative medicine.

Complementary medicine: A group of diagnostic and therapeutic disciplines that are used together with conventional medicine. An example of a complementary therapy is using acupuncture in addition to usual care to help lessen a patient's discomfort following surgery.

Alternative medicine: is used in place of conventional medicine. An example of an alternative therapy is using a special diet to treat cancer instead of undergoing surgery, radiation, or chemotherapy that has been recommended by a physician.

The scholarship is intended to offset all or part of the cost tuition/registration fees and books.

Applicant Criteria:

- High School Senior with a minimum of 2.8 GPA.
- Demonstrate financial need
- Must be a resident of the Kenai Peninsula Borough
- Must be accepted into a post-secondary education or training program

Awarding of Funds:

- Scholarships are awarded based on information provided with the application. The total amount available is $2,000 per award.
- Scholarship awardees will be notified directly by the Central Peninsula Health Foundation Dr. Paul Isaak Scholarship Committee.
- All scholarship awards are issued payable to the training institution.

CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OBJECTIVE

This section is to be completed as an essay and must be written or printed on a separate sheet of paper, double-spaced, with your name and address as a header. Your response to this section is critical to the evaluation by the Scholarship Committee of your career goals and professional development strategies.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

I understand scholarship funds are to be used for expenses incurred only for the costs associated directly with my training such as registration fees, books and course fees. Should I be selected as a scholarship recipient, I agree to attend all classes. Failure to attend may result in the applicant's repayment to the Dr. Paul Isaak Memorial Scholarship program. I agree to have my name and photograph used in any publicity for the scholarship program.

I understand that this application must contain all requested materials and must be signed and dated and received by the Central Peninsula Health Foundation on or before the due date.

I understand that all funds will be made payable to the educational institution.

I understand that recipients are chosen by the Scholarship Committee and that committee members cannot comment on the contents of an application to any other individual. All applications will be held strictly confidential and no application material will be returned.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT BY APPLICANT: I hereby certify that all of the information documented here is accurate and completed to the best of my knowledge. I have read and understand the terms and conditions. I understand the decision of the Scholarship Committee in its selection of scholarship recipients is final.
